In each of the top boxes, write one word that the student needs to practice. They roll a dice and write that sight word in the first empty box. They continue rolling the dice and writing their sight words until one column (or all the columns!) are filled. As a variation, each time you print out a new set of 6 words, have students use a different medium to write the words: crayons, colored pencils, markers, etc.

•	Ro •••	II A Si	ght W	ord
-					